SOVIET REPLY REGARDED AS CONCILIATORY

Suggests Tangled Financial Problems Be Submitted to Mixed
Commission of Experts

FUTURE UNCERTAIN

Indications Are That Genoa Conference May Be Prolonged Indefinitely

(By the Associated Press)

Genoa, May 11.—Russia's reply to the Allied memorandum, which was presented today to Sigmar Schanzer, president of the economic conference, is generally regarded as conciliatory. At least it is considered a basis for further negotiations.

In suggestion that all the tangled financial problems be submitted to a mixed committee of experts named by the Genoa conference, provided a means of escape from the present super-heated atmosphere, which appears to be unfavorable for the settlement of the myriad questions arising from the Russian situation.

England regards the reply as moderately conciliatory; so, also, does Italy. The Italian foreign minister has been working day and night to prevent a break which seemed imminent through opposition of France and Belgium to the settlement of the property question which Great Britain and the lesser powers will approve.

France expresses great disappointment at the reply and Belgium is far from satisfied. M. Barthou, head of the French delegation, declared after an examination of the text that the reply did not get anywhere and was not really an answer at all to the Allied proposals. Consequently, it will not be certain until after he has conferred with the government in Paris whether the Russian proposals would be accepted by the French as a basis for continuation of the discussions.

M. Barthou's Comment

"It is less an answer than an indictment of the powers, coupled with a flat refusal to reply to the questions put to them," said M. Barthou to The Associated Press correspondent tonight in commenting on the Soviet reply.

He made this remark as he was entering his hotel, where he gave a dinner tonight in honor of the American ambassador, Richard Washburn Child, Signor Schanzer, Baron Hayashi, Viscount Ishii and other Allied leaders.

M. Barthou added:

"I have telegraphed the document to Paris and expect to receive instructions from my government tomorrow morning."

In the meantime, the future of the conference is highly uncertain. Some of the delegations believe that it will close precipitately, or perhaps it would be truer to say that they hope it will. Other delegations predict that it will last six weeks longer and go into the Russian financial tangle in great detail. The latter seem to be in the majority, and indications tonight are that the conference may be prolonged indefinitely.

The Russian Declaration

The general conclusion of the Russian reply reads:

"The Russian government sent its representatives to the conference at Genoa in the hope of achieving an agreement with other states which, without affecting the social and political regime established in consequence of the revolution, and intervention victoriously repulsed, would bring about no aggravation but amelioration of the economic and financial situation in Russia and at the same time open the way to amelioration of the economic situation of Europe."

"But this plan presupposed that the foreign powers who organized armed intervention in Russia would cease, using towards Russia the language of the victor to the vanquished. Russia, not having been vanquished, the only language which could have led to a common agreement was that which states adopt toward each other when contracting upon a basis of equality."

This remains disputed, in order to assure the success of the agreement, to consent to serious concessions toward the foreign powers, but on this absolute condition, that these concessions shall correspond to equivalent concessions in favor of the Russian people by the other contracting parties. The popular masses in Russia could not accept an agreement in which the concessions granted should be their counterpart in real advantage."

Plan of Reciprocity Suggested

"A different outcome, and one suggested by the difficulties of the situation, would be reciprocal annulment of the claims and counter-claims flowing out of the past between Russia and the other powers. But even in this case the Russian government has decided to respect the interests of the small bondholders."

"If the powers desire to occupy themselves with the solution of the financial issues between themselves and Russia, inasmuch as this question demands deeper study of the nature and extent of the claims presented to Russia and a more exact appreciation of the credits that could be claimed at her disposal, this task might be referred to a mixed commission of the experts appointed by the conference and whose work should begin at a date and place to be determined by common consent."

The Russian delegation observes that the great obstacle which hitherto has impeded the work of the confer-

MUSCLE SHOALS IS AGAIN CONSIDERED

Chairman Norris Introduces Plan for Operation by Semi-Government Corporation

Washington, May 11.—New developments in congressional consideration of proposals for developing the Muscle Shoals, Ala., nitrate and power projects occurred today in the senate agriculture and house military committees.

Chairman Norris of the senate committee introduced a bill providing for a semi-government corporation to take over and operate the nitrate and power projects for fifty years. The measure was drafted by James T. Lloyd, former representative from Missouri, and submitted by J. H. Levering, a consulting engineer of Los Angeles, Cal., as a modification of the bill. Senator Norris recently introduced.

The Nebraska Senator also made public a tentative proposal received from L. Stern, a Baltimore, Md., consulting engineer and manufacturer of chemical products. Mr. Stern's letter of transmission requested the committee to hear him at its convenience, and said the formal tender would be made later, the committee deciding informally to accede to the request and grant Mr. Stern a hearing.

The tentative offer of Mr. Stern provided for the operation of the nitrate and power projects for a period of 25 or 50 years, or any suitable number of years that might be determined upon. It further stated that all expenses incurred by the government at Muscle Shoals would be repaid to it at the rate of two per cent annually, and contained a provision by which the government would receive 60 per cent of all net profits made during the operation, with the lessee retaining 40 per cent.

In the house committee, an agreement was reached by which any lessee of the Shoals property would be compelled to manufacture finished fertilizer whether at a profit or at a loss throughout the term of its operations, whether it be 50 or 100 years. An amendment to this effect was made to the bill the committee is formulating for the house in connection with its report on the various proposals it has been investigating.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX SCANDAL IS REVIVED

Charles Comiskey Ordered to Appear in Milwaukee Court to Answer Charges

Milwaukee, Wis., May 11.—An order for Charles Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League baseball team, to appear in court here to be questioned regarding an alleged fix made up by White Sox players and others in 1917 to purchase victories, was issued today by Judge J. J. Gregory.

The order was issued upon request of an attorney acting for Oscar (Happy) Felsch, one of the White Sox players banned from organized baseball as a result of the 1919 world series scandal. In his request, Felsch names the Detroit Americans as the club from whom it was said attempts were made to have games thrown.

Questions prepared for submission to Comiskey include:

"Why was it that the Chicago White Sox team won the pennant and world series in 1917, that the defendant without previous motive or negotiations in the fall of 1917 ordered a $100 cut in salary for each member of the Chicago baseball team, and why was it that in 1919, after Chicago White Sox baseball team had lost the world series to the Cincinnati National League baseball team and after the defendant had obtained full knowledge that the world series for 1919 had been fixed and that the games had been fraudulently thrown and intentionally lost by the Chicago White Sox baseball team, the defendant nevertheless voluntarily and without previous demands by the players raised the salary of this plaintiff from $3,600 a year to $7,000 per year and the salary of Jack Jackson from $5,500 a year to $9,000, and the salary of Letty Williams from $2,500 a year to $6,000?"

BLIMP DRIFTS HELPLESSLY AT SEA FOR HOUR AND HALF

Hampton Roads, Va., May 11.—The army blimp A-1 arrived safely at Langley Field today after having drifted for an hour and a half over the ocean off Cape Henry with her engines dead. The craft drifted to sea before a four-mile northwest breeze until repairs were made, when she turned her nose toward shore.

The crew of five were none the worse for their experience.

Once is the fact that the ideas of reciprocity expressed above are not yet sufficiently shared by all the powers; but the Russian delegation must not fail also to emphasize the fact that the pourparlers which have taken place have opened the way to a reapproachment between Soviet Russia and the foreign powers."

"The Russian delegation expresses the opinion that the differences arising in the solution of the financial issues between Russia and the foreign powers ought not to constitute an obstacle to the solution of other problems which can and ought to be solved here—problems interesting all countries, especially problems involved in the economic reconstruction of Europe and Russia and the consummation of peace."

ERIE TO FIGHT BOARD RULING

Has Been Operating Its Shops on Leasing System Since
March, 1921

N. Y. CENTRAL ACTS

Offers to Take Back Former Employees on Piece Work
Basis

Hornell, May 11.—The decision of the Railroad Labor board that the contract system of repair shop operation is illegal will be contested in the courts. Robert E. Woodruff, regional manager, announced today. Every shop on the Erie system is now operated on the leasing system, the plan having been inaugurated at the big shops in this city in March, 1921.

Gallipolis, O., May 11.—The New York Central railroad today offered to take back its former employees on a piece work basis at the Hobson repair shop near Middleport. The company is negotiating directly with the unions. All repair work now is being done in private shops at Columbus. Several hundred men normally are employed in the Hobson shops.

To Test Rule's Legality

Baltimore, May 11.—The railroads involved in the decision of the railroad labor board last night declaring the contracting of shop work to outside firms by railroad companies to be a violation of the transportation act, will not submit to the decision without testing its legality in the courts in the belief of Maxwell C. Byers, president of the Western Maryland railroad.

While the decision does not apply specifically to the Western Maryland, which has "farmed out" its maintenance of way department and principal shops to private contractors, the general principle established will govern all. The decision does not apply specifically to the Western Maryland, which has "farmed out" its maintenance of way department and principal shops to private contractors, the general principle established will govern all. It was understood.

The general ruling of this nature, Mr. Byers said, would mean many millions of dollars to the railroads affected, making a court appeal a logical thing. The shopmen and maintenance of way workers of the Western Maryland struck some time ago in protest against the contract system.

WOULD BRAND CARS TO PREVENT THEFT

Mills Bill Advocated and Opposed
Before House Ways and Means Committee

Washington, May 11.—The Mills bill, designed to prevent the white sale of theft of automobiles by requiring the stamping of a federal registration number on the engine and body of each car for which the owner would pay $1, was advocated and opposed yesterday before the house ways and means committee.

Four Republicans—Borah of Idaho, Capen of Kansas, LaFollette of Wisconsin and Norris of Nebraska—voted against the amendment, and two Democrats—Brennard of Louisiana and Kendrick of Wyoming—supported it.

Explaining the amendment, Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, in charge of the bill, said ammonium nitrate was one of the items on which the committee had "wobbled" proposing first that it be on the free list. He explained that this item was regarded as being in the "twilight zone" between the free list and the protection list, and told the senate that the placing a duty on it would make necessary a compensatory duty on explosives.

After the vote, Senator Kint, Democrat of Utah, who led the fight against the proposal, said he wanted to congratulate the Republicans of the agricultural-tariff bloc for "standing by the farmers' road-builders and other who use explosives and dynamite, and for making this present to the treasury."

H. M. Howe of Baltimore represented an automobile association, declared the bill would be a "monstrosity" and that it was a measure which ought not to be considered, since owners now are paying the state and federal governments about $34,000,000 a year.

DEMPSY TO BE OFFERED BOUT WITH HARRY WILLS

New York, May 11.—When Heavyweight Champion Jack Dempsey returns to America May 20, he will be offered a bout with Harry Wills, negro challenger. If the title holder accepts, the contest probably will be staged in Montreal. Much, however, depends on Dempsey's willingness to meet Wills and his terms for such a match.

Dempsey is not expected to oppose staging the bout there, according to a statement today. Frank Flournoy, one of Promoter Tex Rickard's lieutenants, who is endeavoring to match the heavyweights.

YOUNG ASSEMBLY'M'

Major Share of Fortune Left Frederick T. Davison, Who Was Injured During War

New York, May 11.—Frederick Davison, youthful assemblyman from Nassau county, will be able to continue his political career with $4,500,000 of the fortune amassed by his father. This sum will come to him upon the death of his mother.

This became known today when the will of Henry P. Davison, banker, philanthropist and head of the American Red Cross during the World war, was filed here for probate, placing the bulk of the estate in a trust fund for the widow and her children.

Upon her death, when the residue after the $4,500,000 is paid, is to be divided among the other son and two daughters in equal shares.

Young Davison, who entered the political field last fall, winning the seat in the legislature formerly belonging to Theodore Roosevelt, announced at the time that he had definitely chosen between politics and finance. It was said that his father had approved his decision not to enter the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Company, of which he himself was a member. The younger son, Henry P. Davison Jr., now is a student in the Morgan offices, after taking a course in French banking in Paris.

Secretary Given $20,000.

William C. Heinkel, the banker's secretary, who was left $20,000, said the elder son would continue his duties at Albany and probably would seek reelection in the fall. A Yale graduate, he has just completed a course at Columbia law school.

No one would officially estimate the value of the estate left by Mr. Davison, but in some quarters it was placed at between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000. Those close to the banking house, however, reasoned that the major share undoubtedly had been given to the elder son, on the theory that his earning capacity might have been impaired by severe injuries sustained in an airplane accident during the war.

The will was filed here because Mr. Davison, who died at his country estate in Locust Valley last Saturday, had his legal residence in Nassau county.

Widow Given Personal Effects

Specific bequests of $5,000 each were made Mrs. Dorothy P. Davison, Mr. Davison's daughter-in-law, and Artemus R. Gates, his son-in-law, to his wife's secretary, Levina E. Oliphant, $10,000. To his widow Mr. Davison willed outright his automobiles, yachts and personal effects as well as the furniture and works of art in the Davison town house on Park avenue.

Mrs. Davison, the widow and the two sons, Fred Trubee Davison and Henry P. Davison Jr., were named executors and executors respectively.

The Bankers' Trust company of New York was named trustee. The will was drawn April 27, 1922, about two weeks before Mr. Davison died.

George C. Case of the law firm of White and Case, who drew up the will said Mr. Davison had made provision for his sister, Mrs. Mary Davison Lee Brax and for his wife's sister, Mrs. Alice Trubee Saliman, before he died and there was therefore no bequests for them in the will. His wishes for servants and employees had also been described to Mrs. Davison and the two sons before he died, Mr. Case said.

The lawyer added that Mr. Davison had not made bequests to charitable institutions or public work because he had given generously during his life time all he felt he was able to give.

DUTCHES COUNTY PAYS TRIBUTE TO R. D. CARRIER

Poughkeepsie, May 11.—Mourners traveling by foot, wagon, automobile and train, from all parts of Dutchess County, from the highest county official to the humblest villager, today paid final tribute to Rural Mail Carrier Silas Denton, 38, victim of scorpion poison.

One hundred twelve automobiles and half as many rigs were counted in front of the Baptist church at Whaley Lake, 15 miles east of here, where Denton spent his life and where for 15 years he carried mail. Although the church was crowded many were forced to remain outside during the services. It was the largest funeral in the history of the village, and the floral tributes were moved by truckload. Four ministers assisted in the services.

Another Successful Summer Season Indicated for Catskill Resort.

Stamford, May 11.—Many New York people have been in town the past two weeks in search of cottages for the summer. There is a big demand for summer homes, indicating that Stamford will have another highly successful season. The baseball team, which is now assured, should prove an added attraction to New York folk who seek relief in the mountains from the oppressive heat of the city.

Prof. Getman, who occupies the Brown cottage on Academy street, has leased the property to New York buyers until the end of the school year.

The Cuban owner of Hotel Habana (formerly Simpson Terrace) is making many improvements to the property, enlarging and repairing the building and installing new bath-rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson are making many improvements to Cedarhurst, their boarding house near the Stamford Country club.

After the meeting, all present, 80 in number, assembled at the Cold Spring house where a banquet of six courses was served by Proprietor S. D. Mase, which was greatly enjoyed and pronounced one of the best the members had ever partaken of. Dr. Voigt was toastmaster and remarks were made by District Attorney A. L. A PUBLIC NECESSITY.

The attention of legal voters, whose status was clearly defined in The Star of Wednesday, is called to the election to be held today at the Municipal building for the purpose of deciding upon the proposed issue of bonds to the amount of $40,000 for the erection of a new school building in the Sixth ward.

The matter has in various articles already printed in these columns been clearly presented to the citizens of Oneonta. The need for more adequate quarters for pupils, the fact that many grade pupils are already on part time, and that in the section of the town where the new building is to be erected the school population is steadily increasing are matters well understood.

The necessity for additional school accommodations has for several years been evident; but the World war and the high cost of labor and materials for the years following delayed the work. Now that business conditions are better, the board of education has wisely decided that the work of construction should at once begin. Had it not been for unfortunate conflict of statutes relative to municipal bond issues for school purposes, the question would two months ago have been submitted and not improbably the contract already awarded. Now that the matter is properly before the people, there should be no possibility of failure through indifference of voters.

Briefly summarized, the facts are as follows: The new school building is imperatively needed. It can be erected at a fair figure. The sum asked from the city is not unreasonable either for site or building.

For these reasons, it again is urged that every legal voter be at the polls today, casting a ballot for that better education which the times demand, and which in the future, as now, is to be the foundation and the bulwark of our country's greatness.

MAKING OF AMERICANS.

Jacob H. Rubin, former American Socialist, back from Russia, is a changed man, preaching a new gospel. He tells, by way of preamble, of meeting Emma Goldman in Russia and asking whether she had any new views on "free speech," whereupon she replied:

"Forget it! And whenever you get back to the United States, use your influence to get me out of this Russian hell, and I'll promise to be a good little girl."

The fiery Emma has amply recanted, in her own name, as regards her former condemnation of the American system, and now Rubin adds his testimony:

"Socialism cannot work out. The only thing worth living for is incentive, and the Soviet government has destroyed that. The Russian people have lost their heart for work because, no matter how much they produce, they are only allowed so much."

"I was an Internationalist when I left America."

"But after I had been over there 13 months, seeing only misery, starvation and death, I thought the American colors the most beautiful in the world. I advise anyone who is dissatisfied with this country to stay one month in Russia, and I assure you he will come back 18-year-old American. To labor, I say, I do not look for salvation in socialism. It is a beautiful dream, but a bitter realization. I know, because I was once a Socialist—but am now an American."

REPORT OF THE GIRL SCOUTS.

A year ago the Girl Scout work in Oneonta consisted of one lone troop with a Captain and Lieutenant. They were somewhat discouraged as in spite of the devotion of the leaders, there seemed to be little progress. There was no connecting link between the workers and the community and therefore no support for the work.

At present there is a committee of five women to supervise the work, three troops working and material at hand for a fourth. Each troop has a captain and two lieutenants and there is something doing all the time. The girls are preparing now for a play which will be given this month. About eighty girls are attending the weekly meetings and there is one troop of eighteen girls registered with the National office in New York.

Much credit for the work is due to those who started the work in March, 1920. For more than a year they struggled along accomplishing something in spite of the discouragements. Without that beginning the gratifying accomplishments of the past few months would have been impossible. There is every reason now to predict great things for the future of the movement.

That New England Conscience. "Shun the New England conscience!" is one of the ten rules for avoiding nervousness laid down by Dr. Austin Fox Riggs in the current number of "Mental Hygiene." The New England conscience, he says, is a form of egotism that makes a moral issue of every trivial thought or feeling. It takes the adventure out of life and puts in its place all manner of safety-first devices which warp the mind of the possessor.—[New York Tribune]

In Sight of Three Millions. The report of the Second National Bank of Cooperstown, which is printed in another column, shows that reliable old financial institution almost at the three million mark. The capital and surplus are evidence of wise management, and the deposits show the confidence of the public in an institution which at the end of seventy years is still "going strong."

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

College Comics.

The faculty publications committee of the University of Washington has ordered the students' monthly magazine to suspend. There is not enough comic material at the university to enable a humorous magazine to survive it claims. The case of a university so lacking in humor and the capacity for expressing it as to be unable to get out a funny paper once a month must be sad indeed. Such seriousness is unnatural and unimaginable. It should be harder to avoid comical situations and outbursts of clever retorts among students than to let them occur. But if the spirit of fun has really departed from the student body of the University of Washington, then it is time to establish a course in pure nonsense, with clowns for professors. A college without its share of nonsense should not be permitted to exist.—[New York Tribune]

Prospects for Peace in China.

The struggle for supremacy between Generals Chang Tso-Lin, the governor of Manchuria, and General Wu Pei-fu, inspector general of the Hunan and Hubei provinces, has ended with a surprising celerity, and a no less surprising decisiveness, and although it is likely that some of the expectations which have been aroused by what has taken place will be disappointed, that the situation has been beneficially simplified and substantially improved by General Wu's victory may reasonably be believed.—[Philadelphia Record].

Chicago Marriages.

The cleric in charge of the marriage license bureau in Chicago is really disturbed over the falling off in his department, during the first four months of this year. He reports that 1200 fewer licenses have been issued than in the corresponding period of the previous year, and 2,000 fewer than in 1920. Although he seems to take no account of it, the lateness of Easter this year may have had something to do with this condition; but even so, the figures are, indeed, rather alarming.—[Philadelphia Record].

Railroad Wage Case.

After having heard a great volume of testimony, the United States Railroad Labor board has just begun consideration of the question whether wages of railroad employees shall be further reduced. The employers have requested a reduction of twenty percent, to bring wages down to what they were in May last year. If the reduction were authorized, wages would yet include all that had been granted during war time. Only the subsequent increase would be lopped off. But the employees have contended right along that present wages are not excessive.—[Wilkes-Barre Record].

A Record of Economy.

What is the record of the Republican majority in congress? It was to be expected that war expenditures amounting to $19,000,000,000 in 1919 would be reduced. But they have been reduced from that figure to $4,000,000,000 in 1922. Appropriation bills call for a reduction of another half billion dollars for the next fiscal year. There must have been real economy to achieve such a decline. Normal expenditures before the war ran something over $1,000,000,000 a year.—[Wilkes-Barre Record].

Brussels and Genoa.

There was virtual unanimity at Genoa on economic topics. Russians and Germans verbally disagreed from the opinions expressed by the spokesmen of other nations, but the cable reports no votes against the chief conclusions. The weight to be given them is increased by their essential harmony with the conclusions reached at Brussels in 1920. Only in form and detail is there any difference. The assertion by both of gold as the only possible world standard of value is unflinching.—[New York Times].

This is the Month of Birds.

May is of all months in the year the paradise of the bird lover. Before its end all the summer residents have arrived and all the migrants not farther north have spent a few days with us on their way. The flocks, of course, may be studied as well in June, and most of them sing well into July. But in May practically every species that ever visits this part of the country may be identified by the patient observer.—[Philadelphia Inquirer].

Dr. Parkhurst.

A luncheon in honor of Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst was given in New York the other day on his eightieth birthday. Full of vigor and intensely concerned with the present and future of municipal government, based upon "the quietude, the orderliness, the comfort and prosperity of the collective life of the city," Dr. Parkhurst recalled the days, nearly thirty years ago, when he stood as a conspicuous figure in exposing and combating the evils of corrupt police power.—[Philadelphia Record].

Missing the Sights.

Doctor—No, you'll not be able to leave the house for a week at least. She—Oh, dear! Then I shan't see Emily married! I've missed two of her weddings already, and it may be months before she's married again!—[Judge].

Another Demand.

Will the man in Syracuse who claims to have invented an engine that will run long on a little fuel now kindly invent a furnace that will give sufficient heat from a little coal?—[Albany Journal].

Riot Insurance.

Riot insurance rates in Ireland jumped from $1.40 to $22 when a Lloyd's underwriter was shot in the leg. Nothing like having a man on the job to find out real conditions.—[San Francisco Chronicle].

Verity.

All moving pictures will have a wholesome influence when they are made as nearly true to life as that can be done.—[Albany Journal].

AMERICAN Output.

The high-water line was established in 1919 when America's productive industry's output attained the unprecedented value of $37,000,000,000. The market of prices had, of course, something to do with this, but did not account for the increase of nearly 187 per cent over ten years before. Divided into activities, the gross value of our manufactured output in that year was $62,418,000,000; of our farm products $21,425,000,000 and of our mines and quarries $3,158,000,000 Some country.—[Pittsburgh Dispatch].

BUSY MONEY

The Mutual Life received from policy holders in 1921 the sum of $91,379,899, and paid to policy holders and their beneficiaries the sum of $95,229,239, which was $3,859,340 more than it received from them. FIRE TRUCK OUT TWICE and on East Street Yesterday Afternoon Cause Little Damage.

Blazes in Rear of City Drug Store

Two fires within an hour of each other late yesterday afternoon made considerable work for the city smoke eaters but resulted in little property damage. At 5:30 the truck was called to the rear of the City Drug store, where flames started by a bonfire in close proximity were shooting up the side of a wooden barn adjoining Brannan's garage. A pile of shingles, empty boxes and other rubbish by the side of the barn helped the flames get their start. The fire was extinguished before it had done any material damage to the building.

The barn is owned by D. F. Keyes and used for storage purposes. The damage to the building is fully covered by insurance. Lauren and Rowe had a quantity of glass jars stored in the barn and they will suffer a slight loss through breakage.

The truck had hardly backed into the station when a telephone alarm sent it again this time to the home of Willard Peet at 31 East street, where an oil stove in the room of a Normal student had exploded. There was more smoke than fire and the services of the firemen were not needed. The excitement drew a large gathering including many Normal students.

LOCAL MENTION.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. James E. Myers of 9½ Spring street, May 8th, a son, James E. Myers Jr.

Cast a vote for better school facilities at the special election today. Polls are open at the Municipal building from 9 until 4 o'clock.

The Ceperley & Morgan Real Estate company has sold the building located at 13 Pleasant avenue, West End, formerly occupied by Harry Gorton, to E. A. Geer, who will occupy it after May 16th.

There are boys and girls in the city who have been four years in school and who never have been able to put in full time at school because of lack of a proper number of school rooms in the city. This should bring every parent and every taxpaying friend of an opportunity for an education to the polls today between 9 and 4 o'clock, to vote in favor of the new school building in the sixth ward.

ZONING AND CITY'S GROWTH

Public Urged to Attend Meeting at Municipal Hall Tonight and Hear Mr. Pollock Present Important Subject of Interest to All Property Owners.

Zoning will be clearly explained to all citizens who are at Municipal hall at 7:45 o'clock this evening to hear the address by Clarence D. Pollock, consulting engineer of New York City, on "The Relation of Zoning to City's Future Growth," in connection with the quarterly membership meeting of Oneonta Chamber of Commerce.

Regulations and restrictions generally placed by zoning on buildings or houses erected in the future, as to the type of building in certain districts, the proportion of the lot it covers, and its height, will be told by Mr. Pollock in an interesting manner, and he will also speak of the reasons for this regulation and the benefits of this protection to improve real estate as well as the unified growth of a city.

Women as well as men are invited to tonight's meeting and all citizens of Oneonta, whether members of the Chamber of Commerce or not, are urged to be present to learn at firsthand of this important subject and participate in the discussion which will follow.

President Roscoe C. Briggs of the Chamber of Commerce will preside at the meeting. A quarterly report on activities will be submitted by the Board of Directors to the membership. Jerry E. Wilson will lead the singing.

Mr. Pollock will arrive this morning from New York City and will be taken by automobile around the city by members of the Zoning committee, with whom he will confer just previous to the meeting this evening. His experience in city planning and zoning work for various cities, including Keene, N. H., and Danbury, Conn., assures his audience of an entertaining address and a goodly number are expected to attend.

ARETHUSA CONVENTION

Delegates From Four Chapters Meet in Three-Day Convention.

The annual convention of the Arethusa sorority opened with a theatre party for the delegates at the Oneonta theatre last evening at 7:15. Those who arrived Thursday morning spent the forenoon in visiting the classes at the Normal. The first social event was the party at the theatre Thursday evening. The affair was most enjoyable and was a fitting opening for the annual convention.

This morning will be spent by the delegates in visiting the classes. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be an informal tea dance in the Arethusa rooms at the Normal to which all the members of the local chapter and the out-of-town delegates are invited. At 7:30 this evening the Arethusa girls will be guests at the Athletic Association party to be given in the gymnasium. The entertainment will consist of games, dancing and refreshments.

Saturday morning is the date set for the annual business meeting which will take place at 9 o'clock. In the afternoon the Arethusa girls will be the guests of the three other sororities, Clio, Ago and Alpha Delta at a mysterious entertainment called Bacon Banquet to be given in the club rooms. At 6 p. m. the annual banquet will be given, to which all the members of the local chapter Arethusa and Alumni and visiting delegates are invited. At 8 o'clock there will be a dance for the girls and their invited guests.

A corps of three waiters proved to be insufficient to care for the throngs during the hours from 12 to 1 p. m. and 5 to 6 p. m. The success of the opening day is very encouraging and is considered a happy augury for the future business of the restaurant.

WORK FOR CIVIC BETTERMENT

A "Yes" Vote Today Is a Vote for Better Education and More of It—Election From 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Today—Remember the Children and Mark in the "Yes" Square.

As early as November, 1920, the Board of Education of this city began to take under consideration plans for the relief of the congested conditions prevailing at the River Street school. It was thought at that time that a four room annex could be attached on the Fonda avenue side of the structure at the corner of River street and Fonda avenue and preliminary plans were submitted to the Ulster & Delaware railroad department. It will be understood that the approval of the State Education department must always be secured before any building improvements are undertaken. The Inspector advised the Board of Education, that if this building were remodeled, it would be necessary to install a central heating plant for the entire building and also to provide for basement play-ground and an assembly hall. Practical builders in recent estimates have placed the cost of such alterations at $30,000.

Moreover, the building thus remodeled would not provide the facilities necessary for sixth ward children of school age who are now registered in the elementary grades of the city. A careful census of the children of the sixth ward completed in December shows that this ward contains 406 children below the seventh grade. Estimating forty pupils to the grade, which is quite too large a number for the best results, it is apparent that such annex would not meet present requirements, to say nothing of anticipating future needs.

The main structure at River street contains but four rooms. A two room annex was attached on the Miller Street side ten years ago. It is therefore apparent that the four room annex on the Fonda avenue side which was recently considered would be as large as the main building itself, and would give the completed structure an ungainly appearance, with class rooms difficult of access, and at the same time would fail to provide adequate desk room for the children who would naturally be assembled there.

It has been suggested that a new school be erected on the site of the present River Street school. To provide adequate school facilities in one new building, equivalent to those now being planned by the Board of Education would require a twelve room school, costing approximately $70,000 and such a school would not be conveniently accessible to pictures residing east of Wilcox avenue. An up-to-date school building containing six rooms, assembly hall and play room can be erected at Mitchell street for $40,000. This is the opinion of competent architects, and the sum mentioned includes not only the building, but also the cost of a site on Mitchell street adequate in size for playgrounds and other physical activities. The Mitchell street school will, if erected, adequately satisfy the needs of the

SPECIAL SESSION OF BOARD

Supervisors Meet Tuesday, Mostly for Consideration of Highway Matters — Another Session Next Week.

A special session of the board of supervisors was held at Cooperstown on Tuesday, mainly for the purpose of disposing of matters relating to the county highways.

Chairman Whipple of the Highway committee reported that the committee had been able to secure rights of way at the Miller crossing at Sidney in the town of Unadilla for $2,000. The rights of way at the East Worcester crossing in the town of Worcester were secured for $275. Both report and resolution was adopted.

The board voted to place the Morris-Gilbertsville, West Burlington next for construction after the portion of the Milford-Roseboom highway from Milford to the village of Westville. This action was taken to clear up a misunderstanding which seemed to exist between the state department and the county.

It was voted to sell lands belonging to the county in the city of Oneonta and the town of Edinburg. This land had come to the county as the result of deaths of persons formerly admitted to the county home. The county will receive an equity of about $2,000.

After some discussion it was voted to appropriate the sum of $15,000 as the share of the county of Otsego and the town of Pittsfield for the new bridge which is to be constructed over the Unadilla river before Federal aid can be secured for the Pittsfield-New Berlin highway.

The county could have appropriated the sum of $5,000 but the other amount falling on the taxable inhabitants of the town of Pittsfield would have been a burden which that town could not stand and hence the supervisors decided that the necessary help should be given by the county. The bridge will be 180 feet long.

POULTRY COUNCIL MEETS

Barn Bureau Calls Session in Municipal Hall Next Wednesday.

Cooperstown, May 9.—The Executive committee of the Farm Bureau and Improvement association has called the Poultry council of its section together for Wednesday, May 17, at 1:30 p.m. at Municipal Hall, Oneonta. Prof James E Rice head of the poultry department of Cornell university will be present.

Committees of the Cooperstown, Oneonta and Richfield Springs Chambers of Commerce have been invited. Others interested in the Poultry industry are also requested to attend.

The main topic for discussion will be the marketing problem. C. S. Stratton and the county agent will report the findings of their Virginia trip while they will primarily to study the marketing of poultry and eggs. The question seems to be should Oneonta county have its own produce house and if so on what basis should it be conducted.

It would seem that the Farm Bureau and Improvement association was taking a step in the right direction.

A solution of marketing problems will do much to increase the production of poultry and eggs. There is no reason why the county should not stand first in this regard instead of seventh as is now the case.

Other business to be transacted will be the election of a chairman of the Council to succeed Tracy H. Morse of Unadilla. Plans for two auto tours of inspection of poultry plants for the culling and certification of flocks this fall, will also come up for discussion.

Recital of Mrs. Wolcott's Pupils.

The pupils of Miss L. A. Wolcott gave a delightful piano recital at her home, 17 East street, Wednesday night. Although many of the pupils who took part are very young and have studied but a short time their performance reflected great credit on them and on their instructor. The parents of the children who attended the recital were all very proud of them.

The program included a wide variety of selections. The more advanced pupils rendered some very difficult pieces with perfect technique while the beginners showed an excellent knowledge of rhythm and expression. There were solos and duets and three six piece violin and vocal solos which were rendered in a manner most pleasing to those present. Mrs. Wolcott gave some vocal and piano recitals which to the delight of her recital.

At the conclusion of the evening entertainment presents were given to the pupils with perfect attendance.

SEEK TO QUIET INDIAN UNREST

Reports of Threatened Uprising in Canadian Reservation Discounted in Ottawa

Ottawa, Ont., May 11.—Minister of the Interior Stewart announced today that he would leave next Saturday for Brantford to confer with the Indian chiefs of the Six Nations in an effort to quiet the unrest aroused recently by efforts to evict an Indian family from a homestead.

Reports of a threatened uprising were discounted at the capitol although it was admitted that feeling probably ran high on the Indian reservation.

Mr. Stewart who also is the head of the Dominion Indian department, yesterday had expressed the opinion that the situation should be handled by the attorney general of Ontario. The provincial authorities however have filed with dominion officials in denying any responsibility for the unrest.

From Brantford, today came the reports that little excitement had accompanied a pow-wow of chiefs held yesterday at which it was reported decision to resist any effort to settle land questions had been reached.

One report quoted Deskaheh, leading chieftain, as saying: "We berate the armed force which sets hostile foot upon our soil. If any man of that armed force returns it will be because 4,000 braves have been slain."

NO VERDICT AGAINST CULVER

JURY DECIDES NO CAUSE OF ACTION IN SUIT BROUGHT BY MILLER.

Attorney Fleisch succeeds in establishing that roadway from Sickler Place is public highway—Several persons indicted by Grand Jury arraigned—Only Equity Cases Remain to be Tried.

At 6 o'clock last evening the jury in the case of Louis Miller of Milford which had been on trial since late the previous day before Justice Tuthill and the jury, returned a verdict of no cause of action. The jury deliberated only an hour upon its verdict two or three of the members at first thinking there should be a small verdict because of the failure of the defendant to have his vehicle protected by a rear light.

The evidence disclosed that the Miller car hit the sleigh with a bar rigging upon it when Culver was driving out from the Sickler place opposite the row of cottages on the west side of Goodwin lake. Attorney Fleisch of Unadilla who represented the defendant was able to establish that the town has worked the highway leading from the Sickler place there being another small house on the hill back of the Sickler buildings and the court sustained his contention that this committed it to public use as a public highway. Few users of the state road in that vicinity have looked upon this road as anything but a private drive leading from the Sickler buildings and doubtless few have even noticed the other house on the hillside.

The case consumed the entire day. The evidence of the defendant disclosed that he had been delivering a load of hay and that he had been driving reasonably fast at the time of his departure from home to return there before dark. The plaintiff was represented by Van Horne & Blanchard of Cooperstown and Hon. Charles C. Fleisch of Unadilla the defendant.

Earlier in the day Justice Tuthill had excused all jurors not sitting on the Miller Culver case, it appearing that there are no other jury cases to be tried at this term. Justice Tuthill will continue court today for the trial of equity cases and will return on Monday. If there remain other cases of that character to be tried.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.

Good Throng Listen to Radio Concert at Plains Church

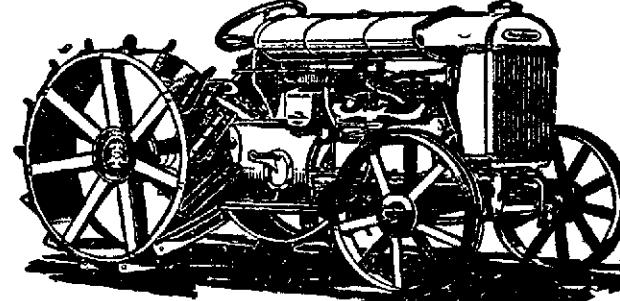

Last evening at the Plains Methodist church about 100 persons listened with keenest enjoyment to the concert sent out from Schenectady, the program of which was given in The Star of yesterday. Arnold W. Wildgrube provided the outfit and with the aid of vocal solo was able to fill the auditorium of that church so that practically every number was heard by those present. All appreciated much the perfectness with which the equipment of Mr. Wildgrube brought them the concert in from the outdoors.

This evening Mr. Wildgrube is to give a similar entertainment of the program from Schenectady at the Elm Park church and doubtless an even larger audience will gather to hear it.

Those who drink Biwa tea speak in glowing terms of its delicate, delightful fragrance. Try it today for your afternoon tea.

"Thrifty"—Just Describes the Scientific Sterling

A housewife writes of the Scientific Sterling as a "thrifty" range. She has found out that, whether using coal or gas, it is a great fuel saver, that no batches of food spoiled by uneven cooking ever come out of that oven; that the polished top and simplicity of construction make cleaning a matter of a moment. "It is an honest range," she says.

It is an honest range, worth every dollar you put into it. It is a time and money saver. That is why every housekeeper who has not perfect cooking service in her home should immediately install a Scientific Sterling in her kitchen. Begin fuel and time saving at once—insure your cooking results now. Get a range that will pay for itself.

We shall be glad to demonstrate the many exclusive advantages of the Scientific Sterling and explain to you the modern saving plan by means of which a small payment will put in your kitchen the

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

Interesting Reports Read Monday Evening at Annual Meeting of Community Association.

At the annual meeting of the Oneonta Community Association, held Monday evening at the Community house on Ford avenue, the following reports from various branches of Red Cross were read, and are here printed as showing the excellent work which is being done, either directly or in connection with other general and local agencies in home and foreign service:

The Nursing Department.

The nursing service of the Red Cross was begun Oneonta May 1st, 1921. Since that time there have been 121 applications for nursing service and 1,000 nursing visits have been made. In September the Metropolitan Life Insurance company asked us to give nursing care to their sick industrial policy holders, for which they pay 60 cents a visit, and in March they asked us to extend this service to all the D. & H. employees who are insured under a group policy. At present this has been made much additional work, but as the service becomes more widely known, it will probably mean a large number of calls.

In June, 1921, we held Baby Health week to stimulate interest in infant welfare and to interest the mothers in the baby welfare clinics, which are held each Tuesday at the Community house. The attendance at these clinics has never been very large, but is gradually increasing and there have been about 120 babies examined since we began.

The School Dental clinic was started in October and was financed by the Red Cross up to the present month, when its support has been assumed by the Board of Education. There has been an average of about seven children one afternoon weekly treated by the dentist, and about the same number have had the teeth cleaned and been instructed in oral hygiene by the dental hygienist. Altogether about 120 children have been treated since the clinic has been in operation.

The doctor and nurse from the county tuberculosis hospital held a monthly clinic in the Red Cross rooms assisted by the Red Cross and city nurses. The attendance at this clinic is very large and includes people from all parts of Otsego county.

In submitting this brief summary for the year that is past, we can only hope that the year to come will show greater opportunities for service and that the experience of this year will help us to meet more effectively the problems of 1922.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine M. Robertson.

Home Service Report.

The Home service for the year ending May, 1922, have given assistance to ex-service men and their families. The office has sent out 200 letters, received fully 250 calls, copied 50 discharges, procured seven Victory medals, applied for eleven compensations, secured twenty citizenship papers, have placed six men in vocational training.

When the clean-up squad of the Veterans' bureau were here in November we cooperated with them by furnishing and mailing posters to all the post offices in Otsego county, also giving all information possible to help the ex-service man. Christmas boxes were sent to our ex-service men who were in hospitals.

Seventeen outside calls were made mostly out of town where we found some sadly in need of help both physically and financially. We were able to have their compensations increased and aid was given them. The sick have been called on both in town and those of our branches as far as we were looking.

Looking back over the year we feel that the Home service of the American Red Cross have been able to bring cheer to many ex-service men and their families.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Leontine,
Chairman Home Service.

Executive Secretary.

In November a box was sent to Indiana, Pa., as they asked for samples of our work to help interest their chapter in doing the same work. 12 garments were sent to them.

April 29th 27 garments were sent to Syracuse to the convention there. These garments were all made from old. A small sweater made from an old pair of wool stockings, cap made from record felt, caps made from felt banners, cap and coat made from a piano spread, dress made from pieces from the rag bag, several garments made from old underwear. RELIGIOUS LEADERS MEET NEXT TUESDAY

Seek to Bring United Forces to Bear Upon Problem of International Co-operation

Cleveland, O., May 9.—With the announced purpose of bringing the world's religious forces of the world to bear upon the problem of international cooperation, religious leaders of all denominations have been invited to attend the seventh annual meeting of the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches, here May 18.

The gathering will be not only international but inter-racial and interdenominational, it was stated.

The campaign for the limitation of armament which resulted in calling for the Washington conference proved that when the public opinion of the world is aroused results are accomplished," the program of the meeting states. "However much we appreciate the results achieved by the Washington conference, it must be recognized that this is a mere beginning. Much still remains to be done. In fact every accomplishment hinges upon the nations continuing in accord with each other."

Speakers will discuss international cooperation in the life and work of the churches and in the realms of relief work, world friendship, agriculture, economics, education, labor and world politics. It was announced.

Among the speakers listed on the program are Rev. Arthur J. Brown,

The Rev. William P. Merrill, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church of New York and president of the World Alliance, will open the conference on Tuesday afternoon, May 16, and sessions will be held through May 17 and 18.

In addition to churches and numerous church organizations, invitations to attend the conference have been sent to representatives of labor, Federation of Women's Clubs, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Society for the Abolition of War, Near East Relief, International Institute for Education, World Agriculture Society, Foreign Policy Association, New York Peace Society, American Peace Society, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, World Peace Foundation, League for Political Education, Academy for Political and Social Science, International Chamber of Commerce, English Speaking Union, National Council on Limitation of Armament, and numerous other bodies.

The World Alliance was instituted at an international conference of representatives of various churches held at Constance, Switzerland, in August, 1914. The war, which broke out on the very day this Conference met, made it necessary for the founders to wait for calmer conditions before attempting work on an international scale, but immediately after the armistice, councils were organized in twenty-two European countries and Japan.

SUSTAINS FRACTURED SKULL
JOSEPH WAKIN, SYRIAN, RESIDING ON WEST BROADWAY, FATALLY INJURED.

When Motor Car in Which He Was Returning from Funeral of Frank Koury at Norwich Crashes Through Guard Fence Near Unadilla—Dies at Fox Hospital Two Hours After Accident.

Joseph Wakin, a Syrian aged 25 years sustained fatal injuries yesterday afternoon, while returning by motor car from the funeral of Frank Koury at Norwich. When the motor, which was moving rapidly, swerved from the roadway near Unadilla and overturned. The injured man was hurried to the Fox Memorial hospital in this city, where Dr. Cutler attended him and removed portions of the crushed skull. The man lingered for a short time only, passing away at about 6 o'clock. Chick Wakin, a cousin, also in occupant of the car, sustained a slight seat wound and was chilled by being thrown into the water and remained at the hospital over night, though his injuries are considered slight. Mrs. Martha Wakin, wife of Samuel Wakin, was also thrown out of the car and her injuries are confined to her back and are not believed to be serious. The other occupants of the car were Assad Hishan who was driving the car and Samuel Wakin, his own brother, of whom it is necessary to receive treatment at the hospital. The latter however went to the home of Lucia Monser at 102 Main Street and Dr. Cutler later examined him there but found nothing more serious than bruising.

Joseph Wakin, the unfortunate victim of the accident, was a native of Syria but had been in this country about 10 years and for the same length of time in Oneonta. He was formerly employed at the D. & H. yards but more recently has been peddling notions and dry goods in the country districts. Samuel Wakin is a brother and Chick Wakin is a cousin. No arrangements for the funeral had been made last evening.

The party left Norwich between 12 and 1 o'clock and were traveling 15 or 20 miles an hour in the Nash four-touring car of Samuel Wakin, which had been driven only about 400 miles with Assad Hishan driving when they reached a point just above Unadilla where there is a bend in the road and where the river and railroad become further apart. The driver evidently was unable to keep the car straight in its course and it swerved twice from right to left and then overturned throwing all out of the car, the latter overturning twice. The accident was near the river and some of the party were thrown into water in a nearby ditch.

Carlisle and Sulean Koury and members of their family were in a second car ten rods behind the first and they, with other motorists arriving on the scene, isolated the people who had been in the wrecked car. Those mentioned above as being at the hospital were brought here at once. All agreed that the car was running rapidly and that it seemed about to topple over when it commenced to shoot back and forth across the road way. There was talk that one of the wheels gave way but owing to their excited condition and inability to speak good English little tangible information thereto could be learned.

Men from the City garage of C. J. Sherman went to Unadilla after the car but at a late hour yesterday it had not reached this city. It is said that the wheels, radiator and fenders were wrecked but that the body and engine are not badly damaged. The car will probably be brought to the city this morning.

All the members of the party in the wrecked car reside on West Broadway in this city. In addition to them and to the occupants of the second car mentioned above Mr. and Mrs. Paris Monser of 102 Main street were in attendance at the funeral of Frank Koury at Norwich yesterday morning.

20 COUPLES ATTEND THE LEGION DANCE

Happy Crowd of Dancers at Informal Social Event in the Armory Last Night

The American Legion dance at the armory last evening went over the top with a bang that will long echo in the ears of those farsighted enough to be present. Advertised as the leading informal social event of the season, the dance fulfilled all that was promised and was another proof of the fact that legionnaires do well whatever they undertake.

The huge drill hall was none too large for the happy crowd of dancers that made merry from 9 o'clock until 1 a.m. It being estimated that 200 couples, exclusive of spectators, of whom there were many in the galleries, were in attendance. The hall had been attractively decorated in the national colors and with its setting of pretty girls in varicolored gowns presented a charming spectacle.

Zitas, the famed orchestra of Albany furnished the music and fully lived up to the excellent reputation which it always enjoys in Oneonta. The time was just right and the choice of selections pleasing.

The American Legion committee in charge Dr. Lamm S. DeMater, Hartwell Polk, Donald H. Grant, Matthew Newcomb and Clarence A. Dunn deserve unreserved credit for one of the most successful social functions in the history of Oneonta.
